Order thereon No. R 13-5
F.R.345-12-2
Dated Bangalore the 3rd July 1913.

It is reported that on the death of Dhobie Bhoora, the last holder of the office, about 30 or 35 years ago, his widow alienated the inam lands, of which S.No.11 is in the possession and enjoyment of one Nanjundayya, who is paying a jodi of Rs.3-14-0, and the remaining two numbers are in the possession and enjoyment of Panchangi Subbabhatta, who is paying a jodi of ~~RECO~~Rs.4-12-1. The latter is also stated to be utilizing the produce of the lands towards the ~~expenses of the temple~~ of the temple of Sri Kodandaramaswami in the village, which though not a Muzrai institution, is held in high veneration by the inhabitants of the surrounding villages. As the villagers have been going without the services of a Dhobi for the past 30 or 35 years, the Deputy Commissioner recommends that the inam tenure of S.No.11 may be cancelled and the possession of the land confirmed to Nanjundayya on full assessment after recovering from him the difference between the full assessment and the jodi paid by him from the date the land came to his possession, and that the other two survey numbers may be con-converted into Devadaya inam and endowed to the temple. The Revenue commissioner supports the proposals.

2. Government consider that it is not a correct principle to convert inam of one kind to another, even though it be for the benefit of a temple. They are therefore pleased to direct that all the three survey numbers be treated as Government assessed lands, S.No.11 being registered in Nanjundappa's name and the remaining numbers in the name of the temple. Government further direct that in the case of survey No.11 registered in the name of Nanjundappa, the difference between the full assessment and jodi be recovered from him from the date on which he came into possession of the land.
